CASE NO:

JUDGE

JUDGE JAMES A. CARR

PETITION FOR REMOVAL

To the Honorable Judges of the United States District for the Northern District of Ohio,

Western Division:

1. Defendants The Johnston Group First Advisors ("Johnston Group") and Bradley M. Johnston ("Johnston") are defendants in a civil action brought against them in the Court of Common Pleas for Lucas County, Ohio, styled Rosalie Devonshire v. The Johnston Group First

Advisors, et al., Case No. CI200202346 on the docket of said Court. Copies of all process and pleadings in that action are attached hereto, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1446(a).

2. Said action was commenced by filing of the Complaint on March 29, 2002.
3. Plaintiff is an individual who resides in the State of Ohio.
4. Johnston is an individual who resides in the State of Minnesota.
5. Johnston Group is a dba of Johnston who resides in the State of Minnesota..
6. The within lawsuit is a controversy between citizens of different states as to give rise to complete diversity of citizenship within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §1332.

7. The matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of interests and costs.

8. This is a civil action brought in a state court in which the United States District Court has original jurisdiction because of diversity of citizenship, and Defendants are not citizens of the State of Ohio, in which this action was brought.

WHEREFORE, Defendants hereby remove this action from the Court of Common Pleas of Lucas County, Ohio to this Honorable Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1441.

Respectfully submitted,

Counsel for Plaintiff

Now come the plaintiff, Rosalie Devonshire and as her Complaint against defendants, state as follows:

1. The plaintiff is a resident of Toledo, Lucas County, Ohio. Before March, she was a customer of the defendants.

2. The Johnston Group First Advisors was an organization based in Minneapolis, Minnesota which provided financial advising services to the plaintiff while she was a resident of Ohio.

3. Bradley M. Johnston is, on information and belief, a resident of Minneapolis, Minnesota who works as a financial advisor for Johnston Group First Advisors. He performed that role for plaintiff while she was a resident of Ohio until his services were terminated.

4. Plaintiff is a single woman who had been advised for several years by defendants. They provided financial advice to the plaintiff and her former husband. Following her divorce, plaintiff continued to use the services of the defendants in regard to her financial planning. She met with Johnston to inform him personally of her desire to be invested only in conservative positions. He agreed to do that. Following that, plaintiff and Johnston exchanged phone calls, correspondence and Email communications while plaintiff was a resident of the State of Ohio.

5. Defendant Johnston failed to handle plaintiff's investments in a manner appropriate to her circumstances. Additionally he failed to follow her instructions to place her money in conservative investments. Johnston failed to create a conservative investment plan for the plaintiff or to take any steps to implement such a plan despite her requests and the fact that such a plan would have been appropriate for her.

6. Advisors failed to supervise Johnston adequately and allowed him to mismanage the investments of the plaintiff.

FIRST CLAIM FOR DEFENSE

7. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the statements made in paragraphs 1 through 6 above.

8. Defendants have breached their contract with the plaintiff by failing to make appropriate investments, to follow her instructions with respect to her investments and by failing to provide adequate supervision.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

9. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the statements made in paragraphs 1 through 8 above.

10. Defendants were negligent in regard to the handling of plaintiff's activities by failing to handle her investments properly, to follow her instructions with respect to her investments and failing to provide adequate supervision.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against the defendants in an amount exceeding $1,000,000, as the loss that she has sustained as a result of the improper actions of the defendants, as well as reasonable attorney fees and the costs of this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD M. KERGER (0015864)
